Hoosier Secretary
To Ike Reported
Put In CIA Post

THE STAR'S WASHINGTON BUREAU

Washington—President Eisenhower's Hoosier secretary, Ed Green, Greenwood, no longer is on duty in the White House and it was reported here yesterday that he is serving as a consultant in the Central Intelligence Agency.

Green, who served as an aide to Gen. Eisenhower when he was supreme Allied commander in Europe, acted as his secretary during and after the campaign and for a time after the inauguration.

Subsequently, Green left the White House, where inquiries concerning him elicited only that he was no longer there.

The CIA is the nation's agency co-ordinating and evaluating foreign intelligence. It now is headed by Allan Dulles, brother of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.
